

October 6, 2024

Meeting minutes

At 7:00 pm, President Cathy Marbury welcomed everyone.

Crystal Larson made a motion to approve the September Minutes and was seconded by Tanya Berfield. Motion carried.

Membership: Kathy Baringhaus and Susan Waterman showed the latest quilt blocks from the Get To Know You Game. They announced that there were 34 members present and three guests.

Cathy announced the 2025 slate of officers:

President: Shannon Shipley

Vice President: Susan Tucker

Treasurer: Vicki Evaristo

Secretary: Kelli Morley

Programming: Susan Tucker and Lene Neesby-Hansen

Budget: Vicki gave the totals for the Savings and Checking accounts. Cathy added that the Alpharetta grant is not a given. With this year's grant, we were able to purchase new computer and AV equipment as well as pay for guest speakers. Our dues do not cover the cost of speakers, so the grant is critical for that. If we don't receive the grant next year, we'll still be okay for that year with our current savings. Leigh Ann Kloefkorn will send the grant contact person a thank you note from the guild. Crystal Larson made a motion to approve the Budget; Holly Lightfoot seconded. Present members voted. Motion carried.

Barbara Means discussed the Art Show "Off the bed and onto the Walls" at the Alpharetta Art Center next fall. The show will run from October to November. The application was sent out via e-mail and the deadline to turn it in is next August. Any quilt already shown at the Art Center cannot be submitted. Our Challenge quilts are welcome. The maximum size is 54". You may advertise your quilt for sale, but be aware that the Art Center keeps 30% of the sale price.

Susan Tucker announced that there will be no challenge quilt for next year, only the Round Robin Row Quilt. More information is forthcoming.

Cathy handed out stars.

Julie Stephens noted to work on and bring in your UFO's.

Cathy asked for more folks to sign up for the two community events in the coming weeks.

Cindy Overton and Holly Lightfoot discussed the upcoming virtual two day retreat and the Holiday party.

Nancy Hadley thanked those who signed up for the refreshments this year and thanked them for a job well done.

Susan Tucker announced that The Button Lady will be our next speaker in November.

Betsy Malone and Barbara spoke about the upcoming workshops for Quilts for Kids and Ryan's Case for Smiles. Bring a lunch. Bring your machine and fabric or choose from a selection of kits.

Tanya Berfield introduced our program of guild members sharing five of their quilts.

Show and Tell.

Meeting adjourned at 8:49.

Respectfully submitted,
Holly Lightfoot