

CES Meeting February 3, 2025

Program: "Behind the Scenes at the Greatest Quilt Museum in the World" Guest Speaker: Meg Cox

Meg Cox presents "Behind the Scenes at the Greatest Quilt Museum in the World" spotlighting the International Quilt Museum located at the University of Nebraska in Lincoln.

The museum has the world's largest publicly held quilt collection, dating from the early 1700s to present and representing more than 60 countries. She will highlight the current exhibits.

Meg serves on the advisory board of the International Quilt Museum in Lincoln, NE. and is past president of the nonprofit Quilt Alliance. Meg has been making quilts since her mother taught her in 1988.

Miscellaneous things

Valentine's treat table

Show and tell

