Behind the Seams

February 2, 2026

Volume 29 Issue 2

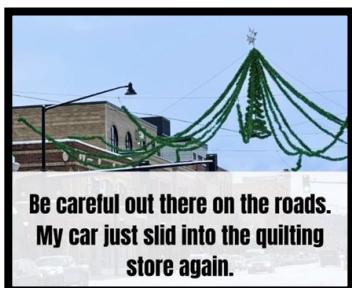

Hello Fellow Quilters!

As I write this, the day the weathermen have been warning us, repeatedly, has arrived. I'm assuming you're doing or have already done what I spent my morning do – reviewing my ice storm preparations. I can't help but hope that we don't lose power and we can all enjoy a quiet day sewing inside while the temperature and ice fall outside!

This month's program, Andrea Barrett, will talk about working in a series and working with constraints. In my job, we're always talking about constraints; too little time, too few resources. As creative quilters, we should be constrained only by what our minds and our fingers can create. I consider myself constrained by a lot of creativity. I'm certainly not as creative as some of you. But I'm certainly not constrained by lack of fabric (if you've seen my stash!) or UFOs. I am, however, currently constrained by time and access. Most of my sewing is still packed and I should be spending my time unpacking. We each have constraints that it's up to us to work around. I just hope lack of power won't be one of them!

Take care, stay warm, and enjoy creating a warm quilt this cold winter.

Susan Tucker
President

EAST COBB QUILTERS GUILD Matriotism

Celebrating 250 Years of Inspirational American Women Through Quilts

The members of the East Cobb Quilters' Guild hail from around the greater Atlanta area and gather to enjoy educational programs, share quilting information and nurture friendships old and new. Members share a passion for the quilting arts and are dedicated to the mission of the Guild: to promote and advance the art of quilting and to foster community goodwill. Membership is open to anyone interested in quilting.

Each year, the Guild sponsors a quilt challenge. In 2025, the theme was "Matriotism – Celebrating 250 Years of Inspirational American Women Through Quilts". As the nation commemorates the signing of the Declaration of Independence in 1776, it's important to recognize the women who have shaped our nation, many of whose contributions have been overlooked or overshadowed.

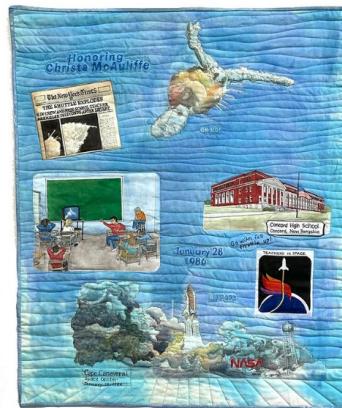

Members researched and designed their original works, with these challenge rules:

- ◆ The quilt must celebrate an inspirational American woman (or group of women) who made an impact on our country over the last 250 years.
- ◆ The piece must have three layers – top, batting, and backing.
- ◆ The perimeter of the quilt must be between 80 and 180 inches.
- ◆ The quilt must have been made between January and October 2025.
- ◆ The resulting quilts celebrate women of all backgrounds, whose achievements in the arts, government, science, social and community service, and family life have shaped our nation.

ECQG has arranged for the Matriotism quilts to be exhibited at eight venues around Georgia in 2026 and 2027. Note: The exhibits at each location will vary and may not include all the Matriotism quilts due to space limitations. The first venue is the Atlanta History Center in Buckhead: 130 West Paces Ferry Rd NW, Atlanta. Quilts will be on display from January 10 to March 29 at this location.

Chattahoochee Evening Stars members who entered the Matriotism Quilt Challenge and will have their entry shown in various locations are below.

To see all the entries, please go to Matriotism - East Cobb Quilters' Guild. www.ecqg.com/ matriotism. Due to space constraints, not all of the 62 quilts will be shown at each location. Each location will choose which entry to display.

MEMBERSHIP

We're planning exciting things for the members of CES. To join in on the fun, be sure to renew your membership. Dues are $50 per year. Cash, Venmo and checks all work.

At the next meeting we are starting a new charity project. If you can take 2 - 5" squares of fabric and turn them into 2 half square triangles, you can participate. See Kathleen Hollingsworth for details.

M & M (Mix and Mingle) is also starting in February. This will be a great opportunity to share part of your quilting story with another member.

Finally Gretchen Conboy is membership's Ambassador to all you quilt store Ambassadors. We still have stores without Ambassadors so see Gretchen if you can help. She has extra bookmarks should your store need to be resupplied.

Susan and Kathy

GUILD WEBSITE

Resources- speaker names and websites from past meetings are listed for your reference

Dates and program information for monthly meetings, workshops and retreats.

HELP NEEDED

I was told by Thread Bare in Cumming that Chattohoochee Evening Stars could most likely help me with a quilt I started and can't finish. I'm 76 years old, own a travel agency with my daughter (so I'm still working) and I take care of my husband at home. He is not physically well and has the beginning stages of dementia and is under hospice home care. So, at this stage of life, my time isn't mine anymore.

I started a Memory Quilt for each of my two grandchildren 15 - 20 years ago. I've worked on them off and on for years, but I now know I will never finish them. I don't want to leave this earth with those quilts still in pieces.

So, I'm looking for someone I can hire to finish these quilts for me. I had no idea it would be so difficult to find that person.

Is this something someone in your quilting guild could do?

This is my contact email, and my phone number is 678-575-3721. Linda Frazier and I live in Milton.

I would love to talk with someone about their prices and everything else I need to know to get the process started and finished.

DESTASH CHALLENGE FOR 2026

For those of you who were able to join us for the January meeting, you already know that for the first time, we are going to have a theme for the year. This is meant to be a fun and completely voluntary activity. The theme is to Declutter your stash: Keep the best, Finish what you love and Share the rest. Look on the website for a write-up based on Karen Brown's 2026 Declutter Challenge for a detailed plan with tips and tricks for getting your space ready for the new year.

As part of the theme we are going to have several sideline challenges. Our first challenge is for the month of March meeting. Submit a list of all the projects you currently have on your "Project Runway". You should at a minimum have any of the following for the project - pattern, fabric, specialized tool. So, basically something that is more than just an idea in your head. High number earns the prize.

Barb and Lene

QUILTING BEE

The February meeting of the CES Tuesday evening Bee will be brought to you by the color PINK.

What Is Pink?

Pink is the color of a rose.
They come in other colors
But everyone knows
Pink is the mother-color of a rose.....
Pink is the beautiful
Little sister of red
My teacher said,
And a ribbon to tie
Round your head.

-Mary O'Neill, Hailstones and Halibut Bones, copyright 1961

The CES Tuesday Evening Bee will meet on February 17 at 6 pm at the Mansell House, 1835 Old Milton Parkway, Alpharetta. The project for PhD Challenge Project for the month is #2 on your list. If you're not interested in the PhD Challenge, you are still most welcome to join us and celebrate all things PINK.

If you miss the meeting, the PhD Challenge project for March is #3 on your list.

From the Program Corner

March lecture and workshop

Elaine Poplin also known as the Messy Goat (www.messygoat.com or @messygoat_elaine on Instagram) will be our first out of town lecture with a workshop in March. Our meeting is on Monday, March 2nd, and the workshop will be held the preceding Sunday, March 1st, starting at 9:00 and going until around 4:00 with a break for lunch. Elaine is well known for her quirky freeform letter quilts. And that is the workshop that she will be teaching on Sunday. If you are interested in taking the workshop or have any questions, please contact me at lneesbye@gmail.com and I'll get you added to the workshop list. The price is $55 for the workshop with $7 for option lunch (sandwich, chips and soda). You can pay either with a check at the next meeting or via mail or with Venmo to @CESGuildTreasurer. The workshop will be held at the Alpharetta Adult Activity Center where we usually meet.

2027 PROGRAMS

From 2027 Programming chairs Nancy Hadley and Genny Gallagher: Please think about program topics you would like to see in 2027. We will be distributing a questionnaire for you to complete at the next meeting.

Your input is important to guide our planning for 2027. Thank you.

Genny and Nancy

AWARDS COMMITTEE

	Twin-size or larger quilt (Min. size: 280" perimeter)
	Any hand quilted item
	Wall, miniature, crib, lap quilt
	Garment—quilted
	Charitable quilt project
	Group quilt
	Miscellaneous quilted bag or other quilted item

UFO and NESTY FOR 2026

The UFO (unfinished fabric objects) and NESTY (not even started yet) challenge is back by popular demand in 2026. We will start sign-ups at the January meeting. Please enter the name and description of the projects you plan to complete in 2026. You must list at least four quilts/quilted garments, but you may list more than that. To complete the challenge, you must finish four of the listed quilts by the end of 2026. Please be sure to mark "UFO" on the sign in/log sheet at the back table if you show your quilt at show and tell. If you cannot show it, please email the program coordinator (Leigh Ann Kloefkorn - lark1953@hotmail.com) to let her know what you have completed. The completed forms are due no later than March 2, 2026. They may be emailed to Leigh Ann, or hard copies may be turned in at the March meeting. This is great incentive to pull out your past projects and decide if you are still interested in finishing them. (Maybe some need to find a new home....)

The sign-up sheet is in the newsletter and can also be picked up at the February meeting. Happy quilting!
